MONETARY.

THURSDAY EVENING, August 16, 1860.

Currency begins to come in pretty freely, and to-day the banks were easier in that line, and generally [illegible] Sale of exchange ruling in the market. Exchange is abundant. The current selling prices is ½ of one per cent premium for currency. Of course that is the price on collections, but several of the larger banks would not obtain the sale of round sums at ¼ below the current price. Selling rates in the street are ¾@1 for New York; on Buffalo par was in some cases accepted. Wa quote buying rates ¼@¾ on New York, but some of the larger banks decline to purchase on any terms. A glance at our commercial column will show immense receipts of grain, and with the consequent[illegible] money must rule at low figures for some time to come. We should not be surprised to see it[illegible] for the first of September.

Gold is easier to-day and retails at 1 per cent premium. Buying rates 1/4.

EXCHANGE.—The Gazette of this morning says:

There was an increased income at most of the banking houses to-day, and with a lighter demand than yesterday, the market was several degrees easier, good paper being in request at 10 per cent. There was no excess of Exchange with several of the banks last night, and operations were made in some cases, but generally the rate was maintained at 1 prem. for banker's checks. Gold was in request for, but the market is dull at 2@2½ prem. It is shipped East as it accumulates. The leading rate for 60 day bills on the East is 8@9 per cent, which is an advance of 1 per cent on the figures heretofore current. Prime New Orleans paper, 60 days, 90 day, 9 per cent. Wagnests sight as follows:

	Buying.	Selling.
New York [illegible]	par.	NOM prem.
New Orleans [illegible]	½ prem.	¾ prem.
Ame ican Gold	½ prem.	40@60 dis.

NEW YORK.—The World of yesterday reports as follows:

The market for money remains without change. On call the supply is in excess of the demand, and the nominal rate is 5 per cent. In business paper there is very little doing; the few notes that are offered for sale are of the best grade, according to date and arrangement.

The receipts of flour and grain to-day were the heaviest of the season—footing up 274,818 bushels. Of this there was 169,294 bushels wheat—the Galena road alone having brought in 45,029 bushels.

Notwithstanding the increase in the supply of wheat, the market to-day opened brisk, and under an active shipping inquiry an advance of 1@2c was obtained, which improvement however was almost lost sight of before the close. About 150,000 bushels changed hands at 85@87c for No. 1 Spring in store; 81@82c for No. 2; and 74c for Rejected. Besides the above, which was mostly taken by shippers, there was an active speculative inquiry for delivery on Saturday and Monday next at 86c, and about 50,000 bu were sold at that price. Winter Wheat was scarce, and improved in price 1@2c—sales being rather limited at $1.00@1.00½ for No. 1 Red; and 95c for No. 2 Red. The heavy receipts of Corn, as well as less favorable reports from New York, caused a decline of about 1c, at which upwards of 100,000 bush changed hands—the range of price being 40@41c for No. 1 in store; 39@40c for No. 2; 36@37c for Rejected; and 41½c for No. 3 Canal afloat. Oats were less inquired for and the market was quiet at 19c for No. 1, and 18c for Rejected. Rye was rather urgently pressed upon the market and a decline of 1c took place, closing dull, with sales at 46c for No. 1 in store. Barley and Barley is easier and in demand at 45 cents to 80 cents.
